Bank for meeting the expenses connected with the obsequies of the deceased Gangadhara Rao depositor in anticipation of Govt sanction owing to the urgency of the demand. The other demands on the deposit amount to Rs. 600. Deducting these two sums of Rs. 400 + Rs. 600 or Rs. 1000 the net balance of the deposit amount will be Rs. 3000 which has to be added on to the Scholarship Fund of Rs. 1000. Sanction is now solicited to the adjustment of the above dues from the assets of the deceased donor deposited in the above Bank. (2) orders are also solicited by the executive as to the deposit amounts being continued to be kept in the Bangalore Central Cooperative Bank as heretofore as requested by the Secy. of the Bank where an interest of 6 0/0 per annum is paid on the deposit amount, while under the Charitable Endowment Rules only interest at 4 per cent per annum is allowed on the deposit amount though in this particular case Govt. have been pleased to sanction an enhanced rate of 5 per cent per annum for 5 years in the Govt order of 29th Jany. 1918 cited to above.

To

The Joint Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Revenue Department, Bangalore.

SIR,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No.7722-6/Misc.
408-17-6 dated 25th May 1918 sanctioning the acceptance of the endowment of Rs. 000/- under charitable deposits -- Rules made by Mr. [illegible] for the institution of a scholarship for the best student in Trishna Yogurveda in the Sri Chamarajendra Sanskrit College, Bangalore, I have the honour to state that the donor Mr.Gangadhara Rao died on 19th April 1918 [illegible] deposited by the depositor in his application dated 10th April 1917 referred to in the ---- order to Government under advertence the balance of the deposit remaining after the life time of the said depositor is to be appropriated by Government in addition for the grant of scholarships to suitable students of the College.

The Honorary Secretary of the Central Co-operative Bank in his letter dated the 22nd of the deceased depositor requested permission for the payment out of a sum of Rs.400/- to defray the expenses connected with the obsequies of the deceased deceased depositor. Owing to the urgency of the demand and the fact that the expenses of the obsequies constitute the first charge upon the deceased's estate, intimation was sent to the Honorary - Secretary that the expenses may be met out of the estate in anticipation of Government sanction. (Vide copy of my letter No.2221 -- dated 29th April 1918.)

The Secretary of the Bank was at the same time requested to furnish details of the assets of the deceased. In reply, he states in his letter No.1169 dated 3rd May 1918 (copy enclosed for information that the late Mr.Palmand Gangadhara Rao, a member of the Bank holding one share of the value of Rs.250/- and had deposited Rs.5000/- in the Bank, out of which Rs.1000/- has been - already utilised for the scholarship Fund.

He states that the share of Rs.250/- will, in the usual -- course, be transferred to the name of the deceased's only heir, a widowed daughter and that there were however a few other demands amounting in all to Rs.600/- which will have to be met from the estate and recommends that these calls may be met from the balance of - Rs.3600/-, leaving a net balance of Rs.3000/- to be added on to the scholarship fund. The fixed deposit will mature in March 1919 but the Secretary requests that the amount may be left as a deposit with the Bank earning an interest of 6% per annum.

Under these circumstances, I have the honor to solicit sanction of Government for the adjustments referred to above from out of the assets of the late Mr.Gangadhara Rao in the Bangalore --- Central Co-operative Bank Ltd. Orders are also solicited as to whether the deposits may be left with the Bank or whether they - should be withdrawn and credited to Government when the same --- matures.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Superintendent.

VNB.

(Letter No.1169 dated 3rd May 1918 from the Honorary Secretary Bangalore Central Co-operative Bank Ltd, to the -- Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore, Bangalore.)

"I have the honor to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your letter No.4221 of the 29th ultimo conveying your permission to utilize towards Mr.Palmand Gangadhara Rao's obsequies a sum of Rs.400/- in anticipation of Government sanction and to state as follows:-

Mr.Palmand Gangadhara Rao was a member of this Bank holding one share of the value of Rs.250/-. There is a fixed deposit of Rs.5000/- standing in his name and which, as already intimated, matures for repayment in March 1919. Out of this amount, a sum of Rs.1000/- stands earmarked for the grant of a monthly scholarship, from out of the interest thereon, to the best student of Krishna Yajurveda in the Sri Chamarajendra Sanskrit College, Bangalore. The intention of the Depositor was that the amount left out of the deposit after meeting all items of expenditure during his life time should be utilized towards the grant of monthly scholarships to deserving smartha Brahmin students of the Krishna Yajurveda from out of the interest accruing thereon. The deposit stands intact, the depositor not having utilized any portion thereof towards his expenses.

Besides the amount of Rs.400/- kindly permitted to be utilized from out of the said deposit for the depositor's obsequies, there are certain other claims, as set forth in the copy of the accompanying statement furnished to the Bank by Bhagamma, the only surviving widowed daughter of the late Mr.Palmand Gangadhara Rao and endorsed by Dharmadhikari Kunigal Ramasastry as correct. He has also stated that the adjustments of the claims as setforth therein is absolutely necessary. I am also of the opinion that the claims are all genuine and were intended to be met met by the depositor himself . The one share held by Mr. Palmand Gangadhara Rao will as applied for be transferred to his above named daughter Bhagamma, who performed his obsequies.

I solicit your kind sanction to the payment of Rs.600/- to the persons concerned.

The amount left from the above deposit of Rs.5000/- after - meeting the claims will be Rs.4000/- inclusive of the Rs.1000/ referred to in Government Proceedings No.1722-6/Muz.408-17-6 dated the 29th January 1918, from the periodical interest accruing on which, the grant of monthly scholarships to deserving smartha Brahmin students may kindly be sanctioned.

I request that this amount (Rs.4000/-) may be graciously allowed to remain in this Bank as a permanent deposit ----- carrying an interest of 6% per annum.
